

Course Summary

Understanding Standard 189.1 for High-Performance Green Buildings

Date: Thursday, May 13, 2010

Time: 9:00 - 12:30

Location: WOW Hotels Topkapi Palace in Antalya, Turkey

This course provides the minimum requirements for the design, construction and plans for operating high-performance green buildings, including new buildings and their systems, new portions of buildings and their systems and new systems and equipment in existing buildings. Achieving water savings of 26 – 35 percent for multifamily and office buildings is discussed.

How You Benefit:

- Learn the basic requirements of the standard, the background that led to the development of its requirements, and application of those requirements.
- Learn the goals of establishing mandatory criteria in all topical areas, providing simple compliance options, and the complement of green building rating program.
- Learn how to accomplish water us efficiency, indoor environmental quality, energy efficiency and site sustainability

Instructor:

Tom Lawrence, P.E.,
LEED-AP
(University of Georgia)